NECROLOGY OF MEMBERS

BY LILA JAMES RONEY, F.G.B.S., NECROLOGIST

ANNE LAMONT FLAGLER, wife of Harry Harkness Flagler, and a Life Member of the New York Genealogical and Biographical Society, passed away at her home, "Edgewood," Millbrook, Dutchess County, New York, on Thursday, December 28, 1939, after an extended illness. Services were held at the country estate at two-thirty in the afternoon, Saturday, December 30, 1939. Rev. William P. Merrill, D.D., pastor emeritus of the Brick Presbyterian Church, New York City, of which Mrs. Flagler for years had been a devoted communicant, conducted the impressive service. Interment was made at Woodlawn, borough of the Bronx, Manhattan.

Anne Lamont Flagler, daughter of the late Charles A. and Anna M. Lamont, was a native of New York City. While Mr. and Mrs. Flagler maintained a town residence at 32 Park Avenue, they had for more than a quarter of a century resided at Millbrook, New York, where Mrs. Flagler was a vital part of the social, civil and charitable life. She was a generous contributor to worthy causes both in her native city and the community she adopted as her home. In its genuineness her charitable nature was built on an understanding of the people and conditions of her time and its needs which she stood ever ready to alleviate by whole-hearted coöperation.

Love of all that was beautiful held her heart. She was an enthusiastic member of the Millbrook Garden Club and her exquisite gardens were the expression of her thoughts and feelings. There was much of real worship in Mrs. Flagler's love of beauty in nature, which included God's handiwork, from the tiniest flower, the gay birds which came from many climes with each changing season to the rugged grandeur of the "Everlasting Hills." Her home was a delight to all and the graciousness of its hostess was a magnet which drew friends from far and near. Mrs. Flagler's love of beauty was most appreciative of beauty of character and of ideals of self-sacrifice and courage in the men and women she knew, whether friend or acquaintance, and she was a loyal, true and devoted friend.

Deeply interested in music, Mrs. Flagler was a member of the Philharmonic-Symphony Society of New York, of which for many years her husband had been president. Inheriting an ardent patriotism, Mrs. Flagler was a member of the Daughters of the Cincinnati and the National Society of Colonial Dames in the State of New York, and always held the best interests of these organizations at heart and in mind.

Anne Lamont Flagler is survived by her husband, Harry Harkness Flagler, and their three daughters, Mary Harkness (Flagler) Cary, Elizabeth (Flagler) Harris and Jean (Flagler) Matthews.

DR. LIVINGSTON FARRAND, eminent university president and a Fellow of the New York Genealogical and Biographical Society, died at the New York Hospital on Wednesday, November 8, 1939, aged seventy-two years.

Dr. Farrand, the son of Samuel A. and Louise (Wilson) Farrand, was born at Newark, New Jersey, on June 14, 1867. He graduated at Princeton University, in the Class of 1888, following which he entered the College of Physicians and Surgeons at Columbia University, receiving his degree in 1891. He continued his medical education abroad at Cambridge University and the University of Berlin.

THE HISTORY OF THE CITY OF BOSTON

The city of Boston, situated on a neck of land between the harbor and the bay, has been the seat of government since the first settlement. It was founded in 1630 by a group of Puritan settlers, and has since that time been a center of political, commercial, and cultural activity. The city's growth has been remarkable, and it has played a significant role in the history of the United States. The city's architecture, with its many historic buildings, is a testament to its long and rich history.

The city's history is marked by many important events, including the Boston Tea Party, the Battle of Bunker's Hill, and the American Revolution. The city has also been a center of education, with many of the country's leading universities and colleges located here. The city's culture is a blend of its historic roots and its modern influences, creating a unique and vibrant community.

The city's economy is diverse, with a strong base in finance, technology, and education. The city's location on the water has made it a major port, and its proximity to the city of New York has made it a key hub for commerce and trade. The city's history and culture are also major attractions, drawing millions of visitors each year.

The city's future is bright, with many new developments and projects in the works. The city's government is committed to preserving its historic landmarks while also embracing modern technology and innovation. The city's residents are proud of their city's history and are working together to ensure its continued growth and prosperity.

NECROLOGY OF MEMBERS

BY LILA JAMES RONEY, F.G.B.S., NECROLOGIST

LAWRENCE LEWIS GILLESPIE, retired banker and broker, and a Life Member of the New York Genealogical and Biographical Society, died at his home, 11 East Eighty-ninth Street, New York City, on Wednesday, February 7, 1940, aged sixty-three years. Funeral services were held at his late residence at eleven-thirty on the following Saturday morning. Interment was made at the Island Cemetery, Newport, Rhode Island, at three-thirty on Sunday afternoon, February 11, 1940.

Lawrence Lewis Gillespie was born at Chicago, Illinois, on December 23, 1876, the son of Major General George L. and Rhobie (McMaster) Gillespie. He received his preliminary education at the Cutler School and was graduated at Harvard University in the Class of 1898. Immediately upon graduation he entered the military service of his country as a Second Lieutenant in the First United States Volunteers for the Spanish-American War. He served actively in Puerto Rico and before the cessation of hostilities was promoted to the rank of Captain. After the treaty with Spain he entered Columbia Law School. Following the completion of his law course he enjoyed a world tour. Upon his return to New York City he became secretary of the American Deposit and Loan Company. Mr. Gillespie was for many years a prominent figure in financial circles and made frequent and well-informed contributions to the metropolitan press and financial publications. During his long career he had been secretary and vice-president of the Equitable Trust Company, vice-president and director of the Equitable Safe Deposit Company and a director of the Distillers' Securities Corporation. In 1911, he became associated with J. S. Bache & Company. This association was terminated three years later, when Mr. Gillespie organized his own firm, Gillespie, Livingston and Company, of which firm he was senior partner. Mr. Gillespie was prominently identified with the American Bankers Association, being a member of the general council and chairman of the trust department.

Mr. Gillespie had been keenly interested in aviation and its possibilities from its inception and was an incorporator and a governor of the Aëro Club of America.

Lawrence Lewis Gillespie was ever a patriot and justly proud of the unique background of his American heritage, which was steeped in alluring traditions and effective accomplishments in the educational, cultural and military growth of this nation. His father, Major General George L. Gillespie served as chief engineer on General Sheridan's staff during the Civil War. On his paternal side, Mr. Gillespie's forbears were of Scotch origin, but emigrated to America before the Revolutionary War era. On his maternal side he was descended from distinguished Colonial forbears, among such were Stukeley Westcott, one of the founders of the Historic Charter Colony of Providence, being one of the Thirteen Original Proprietors in 1638; Rev. Abraham Pierson (1613-1678), who served as chaplain in the expedition against the Dutch in 1654 and a founder of Newark, New Jersey, and Rev. Abraham Pierson (1645-1707), a trustee of Yale College at its founding in 1701, when he was created a Fellow of that institution.

Mr. Gillespie became a Life Member of the New York Genealogical and Biographical Society in 1912; he also held membership in the Sons of the Revolution, Society of Colonial Wars and the Military Order of Foreign Wars.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations

$$\begin{aligned}
 & \frac{dx}{dt} = f(x, y, z), \\
 & \frac{dy}{dt} = g(x, y, z), \\
 & \frac{dz}{dt} = h(x, y, z),
 \end{aligned}$$

where x, y, z are functions of t , and f, g, h are continuous functions of x, y, z . The second part of the paper is devoted to a study of the stability of the solutions of the system of equations.

The third part of the paper is devoted to a study of the periodic solutions of the system of equations. The fourth part of the paper is devoted to a study of the bifurcation of solutions of the system of equations.

The fifth part of the paper is devoted to a study of the asymptotic behavior of the solutions of the system of equations.

— BY LILA JAMES RONEY, F.G.B.S., Necrologist —

MARY LOUISE KING, a Life Member of the New York Genealogical and Biographical Society, died at her home, 222 North Broadway, Yonkers, New York, on Thursday evening, November 14, 1940, aged seventy-five years. Funeral services, conducted by Rev. Wilbur L. Caswell, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Yonkers, New York, were held at her late home on Sunday afternoon, November 17, 1940. Interment followed at St. John's Cemetery, Yonkers, New York.

Mary Louise King, daughter of William and Mary (Renshaw) King, was a native of Yonkers, New York, and had been prominently identified with the social and philanthropic life of Yonkers and Westchester County for many years. She was a communicant of St. Paul's Episcopal Church and an ardent churchworker.

Miss King was interested in the New York Genealogical and Biographical Society, having contributed liberally to its welfare, and by the terms of her will the Society was the recipient of several genealogical volumes.

Miss King's nearest survivor is her cousin, Mrs. John Kendrick Bangs, wife of the noted author.

MARY STONE (MOORE) SAWYER, widow of Fred Andrew Sawyer, and an Annual Member of the New York Genealogical and Biographical Society, died at her home at Waverly, Tioga County, New York, on Thursday, November 14, 1940, aged seventy-six years. Services were held at her late home on the Saturday following. Private interment followed.

Mary Moore Sawyer, daughter of William Emmet and Sarah Stone (Hotchkiss) Moore, was born at Waverly, New York, September 5, 1864. She attended the schools of her native town and for five years from 1880 was a student at Rye Seminary, Rye, Westchester County, New York, graduating in the class of 1885. On August 19, 1885, she was married to Fred Andrew Sawyer, son of Charles Halsted and Martha (Hanna) Sawyer. The couple celebrated their golden anniversary in the Summer of 1935, when they were the guests of honor at a large fete and reception tendered them by a host of relatives and friends at an inn near Waverly, New York.

Mrs. Sawyer was a descendant of pioneer settlers of Central New York. Her maternal grandfather, Luther Stone, was an ardent abolitionist and his home was a station on the famous underground railway. Once it was raided by an angry mob, determined to lynch an abolitionist who was visiting him. Only the presence of mind of a member of the family who disguised the visitor as their infant's nurse saved his life.

Through her interest in her own ancestry, Mrs. Sawyer became imbued with a general interest in genealogy and acquired an extensive knowledge both of the subject and research methods. She assisted the late J. Gardner Bartlett in the compilation of the Gregory Stone Genealogy and contributed many articles to the Long Island Traveler and the Goshen Independent Republican.

THE HISTORY OF THE CITY OF BOSTON FROM 1630 TO 1800

The history of the city of Boston from 1630 to 1800 is a story of growth and change. It begins with the arrival of the first settlers in 1630, who founded the city as a center of Puritanism. Over the years, the city grew in size and importance, becoming a major port and a center of commerce. The city's growth was marked by the construction of the first city hall in 1630, the first city court in 1631, and the first city school in 1632. The city's importance was further solidified by the arrival of the first British troops in 1768, who were sent to enforce the Townshend Acts. The city's history is a testament to the resilience and spirit of its people, who have overcome many challenges and built a city that is one of the most important in the world.
